appliances which attracted nil rate of duty prior to budget like electric presses and immersion water heaters continue to attract nil rate of duty after the Budget. In view of this there is no anomaly.

(d) In view of the ensuing Budget it is not possible to indicate the views of the Government in this matter.

SETTING UP OF MORE BRANCHES OF COMMERCIAL BANKS IN HARYANA

2563. SHRI S.. S. SURJEWALA : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to open some more branches of Commercial Banks in Haryana during the current year;

(b) if, so, the details thereof along with the locations; and

(c) by when these branches are likely to be opened ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTRY AFFAIRS (DR. ABRAR AHMED) : (a) to (c) Under the Current Branch Expansion Policy 1990—95 of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), year wise targets have not been fixed for opening of branches in rural, semi-urban or urban areas. The commercial banks have been allotted 27 rural and 26 urban|metropoltian centres for opening of branches in Haryana during the current Branch Expansion Policy. For branch expansion in semi- urban areas, Statewise targets have not been allotted. The banks are free to open branches at semi-urban centres of their choice within specified quota allotted to individual scheduled commercial banks on all India basis. As per information available with Reserve Bank of India, commercial banks have identified 47 centres for opening of branches in semi urban centres in Haryana.

The centres which have been allotted to commercial banks under the Current Branch Expansion Policy for opening of branches in Haryana but where branch are yet to be opened are given in the statement (see below). The banks have been advised by RBI to open branches at the allotted centres in a phased manner upto the end of 31-3-95.

PUBLIC SECTOR BANKS IN HARYANA

2564. SHRI S.S. SURJEWALA : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the number of branches of public sector banks in Haryana as at present;

(b) the number of small scale industries in Haryana financed by these banks during the last two years; and

(c) what is the policy of providing revival benefits in this regard ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. ABRAR AHMED) : (a) to (c) Accorduing to information furnished by Punjab National Bank, convenor bank for the State of Haryana, there were 1298 branches of public sector banks in Haryana as on March, 1993. The number of accounts of Small Scale Industries (SSI) in Haryana financed by these banks were 50028 and 56284 as on March, 1992 and March, 1993 respectively. As and when an SSI unit is found to be sick, the viability study is conducted by the Bank|Financial Institution. If the unit is found to be potentially viable and the management is keen|interested for its revival a detailed rehabilitation package is prepared in which various reliefs and concessions with respect to margin, rates of interest, funding of cash
